

Appendix 2 - FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

(see also Organisation Rules, EOR)

A. GENERALLY, AUTORISATIONS

1. The affiliated federations commit to report to the board of the CEB all international events of billiards which take place in their country, taking care to respect the deadlines for the authorisations. For all international tournament the authorisations have to be request by the CEB through the respective national federations. The tournaments and organisations will be authorised and take over in the sports calendar as soon as the previous organising fees or at less 50% are arrived on the account of the CEB. The tournaments, for which any written authorisation has not be delivered, count for savage tournaments and sanctions will be taken against the organising federations, as well as the organisers, the sportsmen and the referees.
2. All European championships, Grand-Prix-CEB tournaments can be provide with sports promotion prizes whose amount is fixed in the particular rules or circumstantial disposals, except the championships and tournaments for youth and juniors.
3. The organiser is obliged to pay the prizes cash in Euro (€) on the place, according the respective sports rules.
4. Generally, the expenses for travelling and staying are not to be paid by the organiser, unless other arrangements are precise in the respective rules or circumstantial disposals.
5. The attribution of championships and tournaments on the CEB field is in the competence of the board of the CEB. Applications for organizations must reach the CEB by the national federations.
6. This arrangements enter in force at the sports season 2012/2013 and cancel all prior or opposite dispositions in that matter.

At the time of new admissions of national federations, the CEB board decides, after seeing the federal facts, of their classification. The CEB board can adjust the whole royalties of the CEB federations to the changes of contributions or licence fees towards the UMB. This is valid also for any change of the voting rights for UMB.

E. ALLOWANCES

For the competitions where allowances are to pay, the rate is € 150,00 per day including overnight stay (number of units to pay = number of competition days + 1 unit for the travel go and return all in all). For the eliminate sportsmen present at the closing ceremony, the continuation of the payment is obligatory, always that allowances are planed for a competition.

F. PENALTIES

As soon as a tournament or a EC is allocated and even if it is given back to the CEB or does not take place on the territory of this federation, the organising fees must be paid by this federation.

For the championships without organising fee an amount of € 1.500,00 must be paid in case of non-organisation.

G. TRAVELLING EXPENSES OF THE EUROPEAN INDIVIDUAL CHAMPION WHO TAKES PART AT A WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

The travelling expenses of the European champion are at charge of the CEB, only if it is an individual competition outside of Europe, and if they are not paid by the organiser. The preferential rates offered by the airlines must be used (above 500 km). The organiser has to support the expenses if the Worldchampionship is in Europe.

This costs for travelling expenses are not paid for championships where money prizes are distribute. As far as the sportsrules of UMB, for exemple the WC/GP, didn't have an other solution.

H. DUNNING COSTS

If a federation is in arrears with a payment a fee of € 50.00 will be charged for the 1st reminder. From the 2nd reminder on that fee increases to 100,00 € and increases with each further reminder by € 100.00.
